

FOR BOTH

One disease of thinness in children is scrofula; in adults, consumption. Both have poor blood; both need more fat. These diseases thrive on leanness. Fat is the best means of overcoming them; cod liver oil makes the best and healthiest fat and is the easiest and most effective form of cod liver oil. Here's a natural order of things that shows why Scott's Emulsion is of so much value in all cases of scrofula and consumption. More fat, more weight, more nourishment, that's why.

Hunters' Licenses.

The season for issuing hunters' licenses in this state has now closed and a fair estimate can be given of the operation of the law for a full year. Altogether 67,571 persons have been licensed, and the receipts into the fund amounted to $78,341.89. The sum of $21,976.06 has been disbursed, and there is a balance to the credit of the fund of $56,365.83.

It is not at all likely that the receipts will be so heavy next season, unless meantime, the supreme court should overrule a decision of the St. Louis court of appeals that residents of a county are not required to take out a license to hunt in that county, nor in another county of the state, if they own real estate there in. Lessees of land are also allowed to hunt without license on such land. This decision was not rendered until quite late in the season, and prior thereto it was held by the state game wardens that everybody who desired to hunt should take out a license.

May Crop Report.

Office of Secretary, Columbia, Mo., May 5, 1906.

The Secretary of the State Board of Agriculture issued the following statement concerning the condition of the corn crop throughout the State.

Weather conditions have been favorable for farm work since about the 10th of the month, and planting is now well under way, especially throughout the southern half of the state. On account of a lack of freezing and also because of the excessive rains during March and April the soil has been hard to work this spring, and is not in condition to stand a drought. Most all of our correspondents complain of the poor condition of the soil and say that rain is needed to put the land which has been plowed somewhat wet in good condition for planting. The subsoil of course is full of moisture and if the surface soil can be pulverized there is plenty of moisture for present needs of crops.

Corn.—Throughout the southern half of the state as far north as Bates and Henry on the west, and Franklin county on the east our correspondents report from 20 to 75 per cent of the entire corn crop already planted. North of this line there is only from 1 to 20 per cent planted. In the northeastern part of the state including Knox, Lewis, Marion, Rolla and Monroe practically no corn has been planted. Last year at this time 75 per cent of the crop had been planted in the southern part of the state, and 10 per cent in the extreme northern counties. The average on May 1, 1905, for all correspondents of the State was 52 per cent of the entire crop planted compared with 27 per cent on May 1, this year. However, it might be stated that there is plenty of time yet for corn planting. May 1st to 20th is considered good season for planting. On account of the poor condition of the soil for planting the acreage will probably be considerably decreased. The estimated acreage given by all correspondents is 5 per cent below the acreage planted last year. Upon this basis the acreage will be 6,722,000.

White on Lynching.

Andrew D. White, ex-president of the Cornell university and ex-ambassador to Germany, recently addressed the students on the problem of "High Crime in the United States." In part he said: "Simply as a matter of fact, the United States is, among all civilized nations of the world, the country in which the crime of murder is most frequently committed and least frequently punished.

"Deaths by violence are increasing rapidly. Our record is larger than any other country in the world. The number of homicides that are punished by lynching exceeds the number punished by due process of law. There is nothing more nonsensical or ridiculous than the goody goody talk about lynching. Much may be said for Goldwin Smith's quotation 'that there are communities in which lynch law is better than any other.'

"There is too much overwrought sentimentality in favor of the criminal. Germs of maudlin sentimentality are widespread. On every hand we hear slimy, mushy, gushy expressions of sympathy; the criminal called 'plucky,' 'nervy,' 'fighting against fearful odds for his life.'

Bells.

Paulinus, Bishop of Nola in Campania, invented church bells about the year 400. The first bell in England was hung in Croyland Abbey at Lincolnshire in 945.

About the eleventh century it became a peculiar custom to baptize bells in churches before they were used. Musical bells and chimes were invented in Belgium in 1407. The curfew bell was established in 1068.

A torpid, inactive liver can produce more bodily ills than almost anything else. It is good to clean the system out occasionally. Stir the liver up, and get into shape generally. The best results are derived from the use of DeWitt's Little Early Risers. Reliable, effective, pleasant pills with a reputation. Never gripe. Sold by Crenshaw & Young. 5-5ml

Spectacles.

Spectacles were invented in about 1285. A learned monk named Rivalto mentions in a sermon preached in Florence in 1305 that eye-glasses had been in use for about twenty years.

They were crude, however, and it is doubtful if they were of much service.

It must be true

Work has been commenced on the erection of a new brick engine room and as soon as completed the mill will again commence running steady. The proprietors of this enterprising establishment have done considerable remodeling during the past few months and have hired a first class miller, Mr. McAllister, an old experienced mill man.
